Picturesque Cornwall – CORNWALL

Coverack is a picturesque fishing village on the Lizard Peninsula, near St. Keverne. To the weary Londoner, seeking a quiet resting-place, wherein to recuperate his health and energies, Coverack presents itself as a desirable refuge. It is prettily situated on the shores of a little bay or cove, while a short distance out to sea are the dreaded Manacle Rocks, whereon in 1853 the John transport was wrecked with the loss of nearly 200 lives.
